

SITE DESCRIPTION

SMR WX053-094 Ring Ditch

Plate 1: View of sub-surface SMR site WX053-094 looking North – existing substation building to left of photo on other side of boundary.

Plate 2: Existing substation building looking W with sub-surface SMR site WX053-094 in foreground.

Plate 3: Surviving 19th century stone field boundary looking S, taken to the NE of T12.

Nethertown Historic Settlement / Buildings

Plate 4: Remains of stone field boundaries in vicinity of 'Nethertown' settlement marked on 25 inch OS map – no surviving remains. Photos taken looking SE from area to N of T12.

Plate 5: View of former area of NW range of buildings in 'Nethertown' settlement looking SSE.

Plate 6: Possible remains of stone from former Nethertown settlement looking W.

Plate 7: Southern range of where Nethertown buildings would have stood, looking N.

Plate 8: Substantial boundary wall defining southern range of Netherown settlement looking SE.

Plate 9L SE section of Nethertown settlement looking North. Substantial boundary wall survives.

St Vogues Ecclesiastical Complex

Plate 10: View from just south of T4 looking in the direction of St Vogues Ecclesiastical complex, looking S.

Plate 11: View of St Vogues chapel WX053-035001- looking N from outside boundary to south.

Plate 12: View of same chapel, looking W from east side of monument.

Plate 13: View of SMR WX053-035007- Medieval House, overgrown looking E (within ecclesiastical complex).

Plate 14: Photo taken from same location as above of location of Hut Site WX053-035005, now overgrown, looking SE.

Plate 15: View of location of St Vogues Well WX053-036 now overgrown looking E. NO surface trace.

Plate 16: View of site of enclosure WX053-035006 to the S of St Vogues complex, looking SE

SMR WX053-096 Excavation site

Plate 17: Area where archaeological excavation took place in 2002 during construction, looking NE at T7.

Coastguard Signal Station

Plate 18: Coastguard signal station is marked on the 25 inch OS map. Photos taken looking SW.

Plate 19: Same building from the SW looking NE.

SMR WX053-037 Wedge tomb (site of) / Giant's Grave

Plate 20: View of site of Giants Grave looking NE, T3 immediately to left and T6 in the foreground.

Pilgrimage Site of St Lady's Island

Plate 21: View towards Carnsore windfarm looking SSE taken from near the entrance to St Ladys Island. Turbines are visible but not clearly shown in photos. Only mid shaft to upper portion of turbines are visible from this location.

Plate 22: View from further SW along the island near to the Tower House WX053-014001- looking SE. Again, turbines don't dominate the skyline although are visible, Plate 23: View from centre of graveyard WX053-013002- looking SE. Carnsore turbines visible.